The sanctioned scale appears to be as under Rs 250 + 50 Corps allce. i.e. the Charge allce admissible is Rs 250 or 25 Rs which is the same. The Military Secy recommends given. If Corps allce should be considered allce which is closely resembles in nature, then Charge Officer can be given 4 and 25 Corps allce to make up 50 rules. Ordinarily however local is admissible to an Officer in the Command duties of an office of Secretariat Dept.

Forwarded to the Financial Secretary to Govt.

Mil. Secretary

TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE

No 183 Executive

DATED the 29th June 1912

SUBJECT.

Grant of allowance to C Division Commander for being in temporary command of the I.S.T Corps.

I submit No.1298 of the 24 Instant from the C Division Commander requesting that some allowance be sanctioned to him for commanding the Transport Corps during the absence on privilege leave of the Offg.Commandant.

2. The Offg.Commandant is sick and is on leave. The duties and responsibilities of his Office are very exacting.Under the Civil Service Regulations the Officer that acts for him gets a meagre allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem. This is a very poor remuneration for so important a billet.

3. As the new scheme making due provision for pay and allow-allowances on British lines has been sanctioned in the Budget but not yet given effect to I propose with your approval to meet the present case by continuing the special Command allowance to the Offg. Commandant while on sick leave and sanctioning an additional allowance of Rs 50/- per mensem to the C Division Commander during the period he will be in Command till Sub Pro-Tem appointments are made.

4. I note there is ample provision in the Budget under 27 H (8) Salaries. There is therefore no additional cost involved in the proposal.

To Mr Financial Deptt
There appear to be good reasons in the Military Accts proposal — What is the allowance to be drawn under the new scheme referred to in para 3? May not that rate be adopted?

Order thereon No. 2328-9 Cue 1 file

Dated Bangalore 25 February 1913

Under Article 91 of the Mysore Service Regulations, the charge allowance admissible to an acting Officer is one-tenth of the pay of the appointment, which amounts to Rs.25/- in the present case. In addition a Corps allowance of Rs.25/- has been recommended, making up a total of Rs.50/-. Though ordinarily, Corps allowance or local allowance is not admissible to an Officer in charge of current duties of an office, Government are pleased to sanction the said allowance as a special case in addition to the charge allowance.
